

Meeting the 24/36 Hour Rule

After completion of the second semester term or third quarter term of attendance and from then on, a student must have accumulated a minimum of 24 institutional credit hours in the two immediately previous terms of attendance in a semester system or 36 institutional credit hours in the three immediately previous terms of attendance in a quarter system.

Meeting the 24/36 Hour Rule with Non-Term Hours

Non-Term hours must be earned in between or after the two most recent full time terms. A maximum of 12 non-term hours can be used for the 24/36 Hour Rule.

Meeting the 24/36 Hour Rule with Full Withdraw

Withdrawals (W's) on transcripts are equal to attempted credit.

Additional exceptions or interpretations may apply. Please see the NAIA Handbook and Interpretations Library for more details.
